Parents' permission for voluntary or obligatory Hajj

Can a person go for Hajj without his parents' permission, and will his Hajj be valid? Can he go out to seek knowledge? Will they be sinners if they stop him?.

Praise be to Allaah.

They can stop him from going for a voluntary Hajj, and they will not be sinners if they do that. But they do not have the right to stop him from going for the obligatory Hajj, and they will be sinners if they stop him. If he goes for (obligatory) Hajj without their permission, his Hajj will be valid regardless – even though he would be a sinner if he went for a voluntary Hajj without their permission. He also has the right to travel to seek knowledge without their permission.
